

What is an Artifact?

An artifact is any object that was made, modified, used, or moved, by past human behavior.

The Silver City Museum, and other museums collect artifacts to preserve and interpret our past and present.

Which of these items is an artifact? Circle the artifacts!

