5. COUNCIL COMMENTS – Councilor Prince stated he appreciated the Public Meeting for the proposed Recreation Center and wished to encourage the outpour of desires for the brand-new community hub. Councilor Prince wished to extend his condolences to the tragedy death that had occurred.

Councilor Farmer stated that the Public Meeting for the proposed Recreation Center was well attended and vocal from the attendees. Councilor Farmer hoped the Architectural Firm BRS would be more thoughtful in their approach at the next public meeting.

Councilor Cano stated she has been approached by several members of the Pickleball community with concerns about the courts by the High School. Councilor Cano asked Town Manager Alex Brown if the schools or the city were in charge of the Tennis Courts. Mr. Brown advised Councilor Cano that the City was responsible for the courts. Councilor Cano stated the members were concerned about he netting around the fence was falling apart and the path to the courts was very dangerous and needed to be repaired before someone fell or twisted an ankle. Councilor Cano also stated she was disheartened with the Public Meeting about the proposed Recreation Center, she felt a better job could have been done.

Councilor Cano felt there should be better communication with the public to make them understand how the Council makes decisions about the Recreation Center maybe by having a Public Meeting with all Councilors to just listen to the public with their input but not respond to the questions. Councilor Cano hoped that it would help bridge the concerns for those who are not supporting the Recreation Center.

Councilor Ray stated New Mexico was the third largest state to produce oil and would like to ask the Governor to push for more oil drilling in New Mexico. Councilor Ray stated he was not impressed with the presentation of the Recreation Center by the Architectural Firm at a previous meeting. The population of 65,000 residence included Luna and Hidalgo counties was not right including the two counties. Councilor Ray asked that we support Ukraine with prayers or reciting a rosary.

Mayor Ladner thanked the people who volunteered for the cleanup project around Silver City.

6. APPROVAL OF MINUTES – March 8, 2022 Regular Meeting. Councilor Ray moved to approve the March 8, 2022 Minutes of the Regular Council Meeting of the Town of Silver City. Councilor Prince seconded. Motion carried.

7. PUBLIC INPUT – Francine Miranda stated she attended the Recreation Center Public Meeting and was concerned about who would be running the new Recreation Center because the people running the old Recreation Center were not doing their job and did not provide child care for under privileged children. Ms. Miranda would like to see child care, transportation for children to and from the Recreation Center and help for the individuals and programs that are in the community provide services for the youth.

Carol Ann Fugagli gave her sincere appreciation for the support given and continue to give for the five-points Initiative and the work completed at the Water Works location. Ms. Fugagli announced the Upper Gila Watershed Alliance was a recipient of the Environmental Protection Agency's New Commission for Environmental Cooperation Grant.

Mick Smith voiced her concerns about the proposed spaces in the Recreation Center. Ms. Smith advocated for an indoor swimming pool and climbing rock wall which was the top two items on the survey that was done in 2021.

8. REPORTS – Senator Siah Correa-Hemphill spoke about the 2022 Legislative Session with Capital Outlay moneys available for the 2023 Session for possible money for the Recreation Center. Senator Hemphill was happy to announce a half day symposium with Dr. Beck Bailey the founder of Conscious Discipline on April 21st at Western New Mexico University Light Hall. She was also happy to announce the passing of raises for all school personnel and tax cuts and credits. Senator Hemphill stated there were many bills passed and felt the session was very successful.

Representative Luis Terrazas stated he worked together with Representative Dow and Senator Hemphill on bills and Capital Outlay for the community. Representative Terrazas was happy to announce the passing of One Hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000.00) for Memory Lane and with the same amount from the Town a lot can be done to fix the erosion issues. He also advised of Social Security income exception was finally a big win, it had been presented for at least the last six to eight years and finally passed this year. Representative Terrazas expressed his concern about the cattle in the Gila hoping there could have been a special hunt for people to consume in lieu of having the cattle shot and left in the wilderness. It has been suspended for now and he hopes they can come up with a solution to do it in a more humane way. He also spoke about a couple of items that will be addressed at the Special Session on April 5th.

9. PUBLIC HEARINGS – NONE

10. UNFINISHED BUSINESS – Mayor Ladner stated he would like to again appoint Susan Mittlestadt to the Planning and Zoning. Mayor Ladner felt Ms. Mittlestadt has adequate time of eight months as a residence in the community and with her extensive engineering background and has already served on several volunteer positions in the community. Mayor Ladner asked the Council if there were any objections. Councilors Farmer, Prince and Ray had no objections. Councilor Cano stated she still objected with the appointment stating she feels Ms. Mittlestadt should know the community more before being appointed on the most important board. Mayor Ladner proceeded to appoint Susan Mittlestadt to the Planning and Zoning Commission.
